MARCUS GARVEY, HAPPY AND ENCOURAGED, SEES ROBUST OUTLOOK FOR ORGANIZATION

Fellowmen of the Negro Race, Greeting:

We have just completed the work of our conference at Toronto, Canada, and we have decided to publish within another few weeks our 1929 convention program. This program shall be the most practical instrument presented for the economic, political and general relief of the Negro race. The gathering of the selected representatives at Toronto was most important. The subjects discussed and the conclusions arrived at were of such as to lend the greater hope to the future of the Universal Negro Improvement Association and the race at large.

Practical Execution of Program

At last we are on the way to the practical execution of our program. There is no doubt about it that the future of the organization suggests a most robust outlook. Everybody feels happy and encouraged to go forward with greater zeal to execute in every detail this great program that we have adopted. Feeling as we do the need for organization, we are encouraging every unit of the race to now make a greater effort than ever before to see that the principles of the Universal Negro Improvement Association are maintained. It is only by the most painstaking and deliberate effort of each and every one of us that we may hope to bring within our reach, and within a reasonable time, the complete success that those of us who are most idealistic aim at.

Work for Everybody to Do

There is work for everybody to do in carrying out the program that we have before us. This work must be done, and I may without any hesitancy state that we who have met in Toronto

Plans of Far-Reaching Importance Discussed with Leaders at Toronto Conference

PRACTICAL MEASURES FOR RELIEF TO BE PRESENTED IN 1929

Sixth International Convention Will Be the Biggest on Record—All Must Work to Make It an Unqualified Success have pledged ourselves to see that no detail is left unattended in the execution of the high aims to which we have dedicated ourselves in the work of the organization.

Biggest Convention in History

We are all of the opinion that the convention of 1929 will be the biggest thing on record. We are going to work to make it so, and it is for every Negro in the world to lend his assistance, morally and otherwise, to see that our hopes are realized. From the farthest outposts of Africa as well as from the remotest regions of the world shall come delegates to this our Sixth International Convention of the Negro peoples of the world. From this convention we shall elect the twelve most representative delegates to attend the League of Nations. These delegates shall have devolving upon them the responsibility of supplying evidence and making the plea before the league with the sentiment expressed in our petition recently presented to the league and to be discussed at its session in 1929.

Petition Now Before the League

The whole world of Negroes are being asked to lend their support, morally and otherwise, to the petition now before the league. Our conference here at Toronto has laid out the plan by which we are to continuously agitate the sentiments contained in the petition so as to further impress its importance upon the various race groups in the world and their nations and governments toward the end of having them considering and dealing definitely with the problems brought forth and the remedies suggested in the petition.

Another Event in History

The gathering at Toronto will mark another important event in the history of the Universal Negro Improvement Association. The conference was attended by many of the ablest leaders of the organization from America and all of us have cause to be glad that we were able to hold the conference and carry out the object we had in view.

Gone to Foreign Headquarters

I am now leaving for our Foreign Headquarters at Kingston, Jamaica, B. W. I., where I shall be domiciled for the next nine months. All those who desire to communicate with me should do so to Kingston, Jamaica, B. W. I. We need conscientious, intelligent, honest and loyal workers in every section of the world, therefore, the privilege is everybody's to write now and state to what extent service can be rendered in assisting to carry out the program of the Universal Negro Improvement Association.

With very best wishes, I have the honor to be

Your obedient servant,

President-General,
Universal Negro Improvement Association.

CANADA AND GARVEY

ARRIVING in Canada, en route from England to the West Indies, President-General Marcus Garvey, of the Universal Negro Improvement Association, was prevented by the Canadian authorities from delivering an address in Montreal a few days after he landed.

Some people profess to see in this unwarranted and amazing prohibition the handiwork of the Republican party, which, amazed that Marcus Garvey, from near the borders of the United States, was about to make an eleventh hour appeal to his myriad followers in this country to support Alfred R. Smith for President, suggested to Ottawa that he be excluded.

In the first place, for fifteen weeks The Negro World had advocated the candidacy of Alfred E. Smith, and from the front page of this paper Garvey had on no less than three occasions made an impassioned plea to the Negroes of the nation, and members of the Universal Negro Improvement Association in particular, urging the election of the Governor of New York.

Consider the facts. Marcus Garvey a few months ago sailed from Jamaica to England as special leader for millions of oppressed Negroes. In the British capital he stated the case for the Negro, educating the British people as to the aims and objects of the Universal Negro Improvement Association, and treacherously attacking British misrule. The press tried the age-old trick of laughing him out of consideration and failed.

After an intensive campaign in England, Garvey went over to Europe, visited many of the capitals there, proceeded to Geneva and laid before the League of Nations a petition on behalf of the Negro race, and this done, returned to England free and unmolested. A few more weeks there, and then he sailed for Rome, planning to return by way of Canada.

While in London, the seat of the Empire, the city of the old world with more Negroes glorify than any other, Marcus Garvey, accredited Negro leader, was accorded the privileges of citizenship. Black men must never be allowed to say, in these days of black ferment, that one of the most distinguished and most revered black men was denied justice and fair play in the land where, black men for ages have been told, justice is enthroned.

The Premier of Canada is allowed to thunder Africa redemption in London. But he has no sooner left the shores of England, than the wires say, Ottawa receives her instructions: Marcus Garvey, "political agitator," must not open his mouth in Canada.

HE LIVED A LIFE

(From The Christian Century) What was his creed, I only know that he lived it. He walked the common road. And I mean many a loud, lighted way, brightened the day for others to follow in a weary way.

How these people, who are now faced with the virtual crumbling of their boasted Empire, can hope to keep nearly four hundred million black men and women in Africa, the West Indies and other parts forever in thraldom, we do not know.

This latest episode, which make liberal and fairminded Britishers hang their heads in shame, has but served to rekindle the enthusiasm of those who follow Garvey. It has already enhanced the reputation of the man, increased the affection which he enjoys in millions of hearts and compelled even the sceptical properly to appraise the tremendous worth and ability of a man who could proceed so gloriously for ten years in the face of odds that would have dismayed and discouraged any but those of steepest stuff.

THE PEOPLE CHOOSE

THE AMERICAN people have spoken in no uncertain manner, and Herbert Hoover is to preside over the destinies of this Republic for the next four years. Alfred E. Smith, the outstanding political figure of this generation, one of the greatest men that Democracy has ever produced, has been rejected by a majority of his countrymen.

There are many valuable lessons which Negroes may learn with profit from this recent struggle. Where men press so loudly of Christian goodness, charity and mercy, bigotry, intolerance and evil still abound.

Let us hope that the sterling common sense of the President-elect will put down the unworthy from the seats they now occupy—seats fashioned by themselves for themselves with all too signal success. Let us hope that his reputation for humanitarianism will be enhanced during his stay in the White House, and that the Negroes of the world in days to come will have reason to revere his name.

EDITORIAL OPINIONS OF THE NEGRO PRESS

Negroes will never be free in a land where white men choose their destinies. In politics, in business, in industry, in education, we are a people apart, surrounded by prejudice. We may be able to climb over the barrier, but we will never be equal to our white counterparts.

Dangers of Deviation From Path of Progress Pointed by Educator

Dr. C. H. Maxson, president of George Washington University was the speaker at the University Assembly held in Andrew B. Rouse Memorial Chapel, Wednesday evening, Dr. Maxson, drawing the suggestion from an Indian legend stated that students of the university in seeking the laws of life are preparing themselves for leadership of their group in an ever changing world.

THE GREAT AMERICAN DRAMA

Mr. St. John Irvine, the author of the following article on the recent election, writes and playwright whose services were engaged by the New York World, in which paper his views were published, writes: Now that the tumult and the shouting have died, and the dust has settled, the difference between a Republican and a Democrat may be permitted to stand alone, to face the challenge of each day.

Thoughts on the Law of Compensation The long-suffering of the Race of Nature is generally misunderstood by mankind. The current prosperity of nations is regarded as the reward of their personal virtues, while in reality these nations are reaping the harvest of their fathers' sins.

THE GREAT AMERICAN DRAMA continued. The election of 1928 is a drama of the highest order. It is a drama of the struggle between the forces of progress and the forces of reaction.

TEN EVENTFUL YEARS IN EGYPT

Egyptians Chafing Under Restraint Imposed by England—Nationalist Leaders Stirred by Maintenance of Barriers to Complete Independence—Country Prosperous, but Politically Restless

LONDON.—The last decade has proved a stormy and eventful one for Egypt. The end of World War I found the country by the terms of the proclamation issued by the British government on December 18, 1914, a British protectorate under a Sultan—a regime which defined rather than altered its relationship to Great Britain.

Under the terms of the British declaration of 1914, the Egyptian Sultan was to remain a nominal ruler, while the British government was to exercise the powers of administration and legislation.

The Egyptian people have shown a marked tendency towards nationalism and independence since the end of the war.

U. S. FINANCIAL CONTROL SOUGHT FOR NICARAGUA

Candidate of Liberals Requested for Supervision in 1922, but Conservative Leader Would Have Financial Supervision as Well

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Nov. 2.—Expression of a desire for American supervision of the 1927 elections in Nicaragua, Adolfo Hernandez, Presidential candidate of the Conservative party, today expressed his opposition to the Liberal candidate, J. M. Moncada, today went even further by requesting American financial supervision.

Moncada's letter was in reply to one sent him by Mr. Moncada on Saturday, in which the latter had offered to have the United States supervise the 1927 elections.
